

new look at newport

Some hair salons are happy to stay as they are, faded high street fronts with dreary staff who never strive to better themselves, dated interiors, customers who are treated without care or attention and the result is a business never becomes anything worth mentioning. Zigzag in Newport Pagnell is not one of these salons.

The Newport Pagnell studio is one of five Zigzag studios in the area and all the whole chain aims to be a snip above the competition. Back to fully functioning form after a major re v amp, the Newport Pagnell studio is looking forward to showing off its stylish new look to returning customers and new faces. With an all new marble floor, granite tops and chrome fittings, a visit this elegantly styled studio will be even more of a treat than usual.

This long established hairdressers also has the Zigzag training academy on it's doorstep which is a huge bonus. The training academy provides all the Zigzag team with access to exclusive training, Which includes having high profile Guest artists to train and work alongside our team such as Beverly Cobella , twice winner of the hairdresser of the year award. The chain's artistic team – which includes stylists from the Newport Pagnell salon – made it to the national finals of Loreal's Next Generation competition and to the regional finals of the Loreal colour trophy, they have also had their work published in trade and consumer press, proving they can cut it with the finest.

And if a new interior isn't enough there are several new members of staff who join the already established team and bring with them a wealth of talent and experience.

So with an army of award winning, highly trained hair designers and a new look studio – what are you waiting for, call Zigzag today to make your appointment.
